

Standard Case Management Directions

This Practice Note replaces District Court Criminal Practice Note 9 issued on 18 December, 2009 and it is to take effect upon the commencement of s141(l) of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 as amended.

1. Unless the Court orders otherwise, notice of the prosecution case pursuant to s141(l)(a) of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 should be given to the accused person no later than three weeks prior to the date set for the trial.

2. Notice of the defence response to the prosecution's notice pursuant to s141(l)(b) of the Criminal Procedure Act should be given no later than 10 days prior to the date set for trial.

3. Notice of the prosecution response to the defence response pursuant to s141(l)(c) of the Criminal Procedure Act should be given prior to the date set for trial.

The Hon Justice R O Blanch

Chief Judge

19 August, 2013